- GRP trail of Thibault de Champagne

In its northern part, the trail merges with the GRP trail of Thibault de Champagne.

The walks, step by step...

- 1 After reading the departure sign, go down the Rue de Ferland to the Town Hall and take left onto the Rue de l'Église.
- 2 The church of Sainte-Osmanne is situated in the Rue de l'Église. Continuing along the street on the left, you will enter the Park of the Domaine de la Salle. In the park, go down the stairs on the left below to see the Sainte-Osmanne spring. Feel free to stroll around the park which has many remarkable trees.
- 3 Leave the Domaine de la Salle and go straight to the Rue de l'Église. Turn left into the Rue de Lorette, then right onto the Rue du Montceau.
- 4 In the Rue du Montceau, turn left onto the Rue des Soudis. At the end of this road, follow the right hand rural path. Leave it at the path marker and bear left to walk along the side of the orchard. Follow the path which goes diagonally to the right. At the end of this path, you will find a path marker. Turn left to find the bridge of the Girafe and then retrace your steps.
- 5 Continue straight on the dirt road uphill and turn right at the path marker on the ground. You will then enter into the forest. The trail leads on the Rue de la Gennerie into which you will turn left towards the bridge of Vallerand.
- 6 After reading the Bridge information panel, take the leafy path to the right of the Rue de la Gennerie. Follow this path until you see another path marker. Take a left and walk along the length of the field.
- 7 At the end of the field, walk along the width of the field at a right angle until you join the road to Fontaine Ory. You will arrive at the wash house of Fontaine Ory. Follow the road until the Rue de la Gennerie then you turn right at the entrance of the village.
- 8 Once in the village, turn left into the Rue du Montceau. Follow this long central street and then turn left into the Rue de Lorette to return to the car park.
