

8

Visit and stroll around Champeaux

The collegiate church

Carved seats in the stall area of the collegiate church

The Château d'Aunoy

Chapel Notre-Dame de Roiblay

GR1 trail :

This hiking trail is a trail around the Ile-de-France from Porte Maillot in Paris via the departments of Hauts-de-Seine, Yvelines, Val d'Oise, Oise and Essonne. The trail crosses the Seine-et-Marne and notably passes through Maincy and Moisenay then through Champeaux via the Rue Raoul Coutant before going on to Saint Méry and Blandy-les-Tours.

Hike N°22 :

Forteresse et Collégiale en Val d'Ancœur :

This hike connects Champeaux and Blandy-les-Tours along the brook of Ancœur. You can discover the Château de Blandy-les-Tours and the various historical sites of the area while admiring the three notable sites of Champeaux: the chapel of Notre-Dame de Roiblay, the collegiate church of Saint-Martin and the Château d'Aunoy.
(See Blandy-les-Tours p.2-3)

From the collegiate church of Saint-Martin to the chapel of Roiblay :

From the collegiate church of Saint-Martin, take the Rue Saint-Léonard then turn left onto the Rue de la Libération. Exit Champeaux following the D215 and take the first path on the left. This takes you to the Château d'Aunoy (private property). Bypass the grounds. At the end of the road, take the left path between the woods. Stay on this winding road which connects two buildings. On the outskirts of the wood, take the path for 250m. At the gate, turn left and descend to the brook of Ancœur. The chapel Notre-Dame de Roiblay is situated on the mid-slope to the right. To return to your starting point, follow the GR1 signs (red and white).

Village walks in the area: Saint-Méry, Bombon, Blandy-les-Tours.

Distance: more than 100km

Approximative duration: to be done in several steps

Difficulty: easy

Signposting: red and white

Hike starting point: Collegiate church of Saint-Martin in Champeaux

Distance: 14km

Approximative duration:
3h30mins

Difficulty: easy

Signposting: yellow

Hike starting point: Place de la Mairie in Blandy-les-Tours

Distance: 8km

Approximative duration:
2h15mins

Difficulty: easy

Signposting: none

Hike starting point: Collegiate church of Saint-Martin in Champeaux